Joseph F. Altieri practices in the Firm's Complex Litigation, Pharmaceutical Products, and Toxic Torts & Products Liability groups. He has extensive experience in pre-trial preparation including conducting legal research, witness preparation, developing direct and cross-examination outlines, and drafting evidentiary motions.

Mr. Altieri has conducted numerous depositions, including of plaintiffs and their treating physicians. He has drafted and responded to written discovery requests, and assisted in the preparation and defense of corporate fact witnesses and corporate representatives. Mr. Altieri has also assisted expert witnesses in preparing for depositions. He is well-versed in the review of corporate documents, analyzing those documents, and preparing strategic defenses to likely plaintiff themes.

Mr. Altieri is a 2017 cum laude graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center, and received his undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Miami. At Georgetown University Law Center, he was the Vice-President of the Student Bar Association, the Development Editor of the Journal of Gender and the Law, received the Alan Goldstein Memorial Award for exceptional client advocacy, and was awarded the Dean's Certificate in recognition of "outstanding service to the Georgetown Law community."

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Altieri was an Assistant Director of Admission at both the University of Miami and the State University of New York. He served as an intern for the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia, the Federal Public Defender's Office for the Eastern District of Virginia, and for The Honorable Judge Rainey Brant of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. Mr. Altieri was a member of the Firm's 2016 Summer Associate class.
