

Douglas Jackson-Quzack
Associate

T 202.898.5865 F 202.682.1639
djquzack@hollingsworthllp.com

Douglas Jackson-Quzack practices in the Firm's Complex Litigation, Pharmaceutical Products, and Toxic Torts & Products Liability groups. He has extensive experience with motions practice, including drafting successful summary judgment and dispositive motions as well as motions on evidentiary and procedural issues. Mr. Jackson-Quzack also has appellate experience as part of a team that drafted briefs filed before the Louisiana Court of Appeal, First Circuit. He has taken numerous depositions.

Mr. Jackson-Quzack currently represents a large international chemical manufacturing company in a commercial contract dispute. He also represents a shoe company in an environmental litigation on issues related to hazardous waste and groundwater.

Mr. Jackson-Quzack is a member of the Firm's Professional Development Committee.

Mr. Jackson-Quzack received his J.D. from Howard University School of Law, where he was President of the Howard Public Interest Law Society and an Executive Board Member of the Charles Hamilton Houston National Moot Court Team. During law school he worked as a Judicial Intern for the Superior Court of the District of Columbia and, prior to that, as a Legal Intern for the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia. He earned his B.A. from the University of Maryland Philip Merrill College of Journalism.

Litigation

Complex Litigation
Pharmaceutical Products
Toxic Torts & Products Liability

Education

University of Maryland (B.A., 2009)
Howard University School of Law
(J.D., 2013)

Admissions

District of Columbia and Maryland