DM

THOMAS D. CROWSON, JR., and ANDREA
CROWSON,

Plaintiffs,

-vs-

Case No. A-03-CA-668-SS

DAVOL INC.,

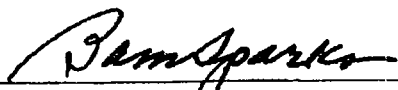

Defendant.

JUDGMENT

BE IT REMEMBERED on the 1ST day of June 2004 the Court called the above-captioned matter, and the plaintiffs Thomas D. Crowson, Jr., and Andrea Crowson appeared in person and by and through their counsel of record, and the defendant Davol Inc. appeared by and through its authorized representative and counsel of record, and a jury of seven legally and duly qualified jurors having been impaneled, this case proceeded to trial till the 3rd day of June 2004 when the plaintiffs rested their case and the defendant filed a motion for judgment as a matter of law, pursuant to Rule 50 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Court overruled the same in part and took under advisement in part, and thereafter, the trial proceeded until the end of June 3, 2004, when all parties rested and closed, and again the defendant moved for judgment pursuant to Rule 50 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and again, the Court took the motion under advisement, and thereafter, submitted the case to the jury, and on June 4, 2004, the jury returned its verdict, answering Question No. 1: "No" and it therefore appearing under the pleadings, evidence, and verdict of the jury that the following judgment should be entered, the Court enters the following final judgment:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Thomas D. Crowson, Jr., and Andrea Crowson take nothing in this case against the defendant Davol Inc., and that Davol Inc. go hence with its costs, for which let execution issue against the plaintiffs.

SIGNED this the 10th day of June 2004.
